WHEN I MUST LEAVE YOU When I must leave you For a little while--Please do not grieve And shed wild tears And hug your sorrow to you Through the years, But start out bravely With a gallant smile; And for my sake And in my name Live on and do All things the same, Feed not your loneliness On empty days, But fill each waking hour In useful ways, Reach out your hand In comfort and in cheer And I in turn will comfort you And hold you near; And never, never Be afraid to die, For I am waiting for you in the sky!

#43

You Are Always There We miss you more than anyone knows, As each day passes the emptiness grows. We laugh, we cry, we play our part. Beneath it all lie broken hearts. We hide our tears when we speak your name, The ache in our heart remains the same. If you only knew how proud we were to Say our friend was you. A smile for all Our heart of gold. One of the best The world could hold. Never selfish, always kind, Those were the memories you left behind. No longer in our life to share but in our hearts

You are always there.

THE POWER OF LITTLES

Anonymous

Great events, we often find, On little things depend, And very small beginnings Have oft a mighty end.

Letters joined make words,
And words to books may grow,
As flake on flake descending
Form an avalanche of snow.

A single utterance may good Or evil thought inspire; One little spark enkindled May set a town on fire.

What volumes may be written
With little drops of ink!
How small a leak, unnoticed,
A mighty ship will sink!

A tiny insect's labor Makes the coral strand, And mighty seas are girdled With grains of golden sand.

A daily penny, saved.
A fortune may begin;
A daily penny, squandered,
May lead to vice and sin.

Our life is made entirely
Of moments multiplied,
As little streamlets, joining,
Form the ocean's tide.

Our hours and days, our months and years, Are in small moments given:

They constitute our time below—
Eternity in heaven.

The Torch is a momento that we can treasure for years. It captures our memories, our laughter, and our tears. The Viking Spirit can truly be seen through these pages.

A dedicated staff put in long hours and a lot of hard work to produce this year-book. The staff, as well as the advisors, deserve a great number of thank-yous.

The staff would like to extend their gratitude to Mr. Paone and Mrs. Russell. They, too, have also put in many hours, and with patience, they provided advice and supervision. With their help, the 1996 Torch Yearbook is a memory for all of us to enjoy.
